

The President of the United States takes pleasure in presenting the MERITORIOUS SERVICE MEDAL (Gold Star in Lieu of the Second Award) to

COMMANDER JANE D. DOE
UNITED STATES NAVY

for service as set forth in the following:

CITATION:

For outstanding meritorious achievement as Director of the Navy Office of Information, New England from June 1985 to June 1986. Commander Doe displayed exceptional public affairs expertise and unparalleled resourcefulness while managing intense and highly visible projects such as the first and second expeditions to explore the TITANIC, the commissioning of USS BUNKER HILL (CG 52), and the visit of five North Atlantic Treaty Organization frigates to Boston. Her liaison with the New England community was superb, revitalizing and establishing significant contacts with regional civic leaders. In addition, she provided important support to the Fleet during more than twenty port visits to Boston and managed media contacts for key military members such as the Secretary of the Navy and the Commander in Chief, Atlantic Fleet. The exceptional professional ability, steadfast initiative, and selfless dedication to duty exhibited by Commander Doe reflected great credit upon herself and upheld the highest traditions of the United States Naval Service.

For the President,

Secretary of the Navy
